

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING THE SCANA CORPORATION 401(K) RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN
QUALIFIED DEFAULT INVESTMENT ALTERNATIVE

The SCANA Corporation 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan (the “Plan”) lets you invest the assets in your Plan account in a number of different investment options. Unless you choose another investment option available under the Plan, any contributions that you make to the Plan, including contributions made under the Plan’s automatic enrollment feature (which is described below), will be invested in the Plan’s default investment option. This option is known as the Plan’s “qualified default investment alternative” or “QDIA.”

Note: If you have made an affirmative investment election under the Plan, your actual investment election governs the investment of your Plan contributions and the QDIA does not apply to you.

The QDIA that has been designated by the Dominion Energy Asset Management Committee is the Vanguard Target Retirement Fund that most closely corresponds with your age and projected retirement date (based on retirement at age 65), according to the following table:

Birth Year	Target Retirement Fund
Before 1949	Target Retirement Income Trust Plus

1953 - 1957	Target Retirement 2020 Trust Plus

1988 - 1992	Target Retirement 2055 Trust Plus
1993 - 1997	Target Retirement 2060 Trust Plus
1998 and after	Target Retirement 2065 Trust Plus

Attached is a fund sheet that describes the applicable QDIA investment options. Please bear in mind that the funds with target dates furthest in the future have the most aggressive mix of investments.

As a participant or beneficiary in the Plan, you have the right to direct the investment of your account at any time among all of the Plan’s various investment options. If you are currently invested in the Plan’s QDIA and decide that you want to invest your assets differently, you may move all or any part of your account balance to other Plan investment options at any time. There are no restrictions, fees or expenses associated with transferring your investments out of the Plan’s QDIA. However, if you sell or exchange shares of a Target Retirement Fund, you will not be permitted to buy or exchange back into the same fund within 30 calendar days. You can obtain information about all of the Plan investment options (including restrictions, fees or expenses associated with each of the Plan’s investment options), free of charge, and can change your investment elections, including any default investment made on your behalf, at any time, online at DominionEnergy401k.voya.com or by calling at 888-DOM401K (888-366-4015). You may also learn more about the Plan’s investment options and procedures by consulting the Plan’s Summary Plan Description.

The circumstances under which contributions might be invested in the QDIA include:

- Automatic enrollment: Automatic enrollment is a Plan feature applicable to new hires or rehired employees. Under this feature, if you are a newly-hired or rehired employee and do not make an affirmative election to participate (or not participate) in the Plan, the Company will automatically enroll you, and make salary reduction contributions equal to 3% of eligible compensation into the Plan on your behalf, within 45 days after you become eligible to participate. Under this automatic enrollment feature, if you do not make an affirmative investment election, your automatic enrollment contributions will be invested in the Plan's QDIA. You may elect, at any time, not to have contributions made on your behalf or to have contributions made at a different percentage of your eligible compensation. As described above, you may also direct the investment of your automatic enrollment contributions at any time among the Plan's available investment options. For complete information about the terms of the Plan's automatic enrollment feature and your rights, refer to the automatic enrollment notice we provided to you when you first became eligible to participate in the Plan.

- Other default situations: There may be other circumstances where your account balance is invested in the Plan's QDIA. For example, this can happen when special allocations are made to Plan participants' accounts as a result of a judicial or regulatory award or settlement. It can also happen when the Plan's investment options change and you do not affirmatively elect to make or change your existing investment elections to account for any new or different investment offerings.

Fund Objective: The above investments seek to provide varying degrees of capital appreciation and current income through a mix of stocks, bonds, and other fixed income investments. The funds invest in other Vanguard mutual funds according to an asset allocation strategy designed for investors planning to retire and leave the workforce in or within a few years of the target year. The fund's asset allocation will become more conservative over time, meaning that the percentage of assets allocated to stocks will decrease while the percentage of assets allocated to bonds and other fixed income investments will increase. A Target Retirement fund does not take into account an individual investor's risk tolerance or other investment preferences.

For more information on these investment options, please refer to the fund prospectus.
